

2019 VICTORIAN PGA CELEBRITY AMATEUR CHALLENGE

The Victorian PGA Celebrity Amateur Challenge

Following the format made famous by tournaments like the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am and the Dunhill Links in Scotland the Victorian PGA Celebrity Amateur Challenge will see leading Professionals teamed up with amateurs in a best ball nett stroke event.

RACV Cape Schanck Resort

Located on the beautiful Mornington Peninsula and less than an hours drive from the centre of Melbourne the newly re-developed RACV Cape Schanck Resort provides the perfect mix of first class facilities, a championship golf course and proximity to loads of local attractions.

Originally opened in the mid 1990's the Robert Trent Jones Jnr course has remained one of the premier golf courses in the area.

In this rare and raw location, you'll experience one of the most special corners of Victoria. A rugged wilderness formed by the elements, and a beautiful new resort shaped by the landscape around it.

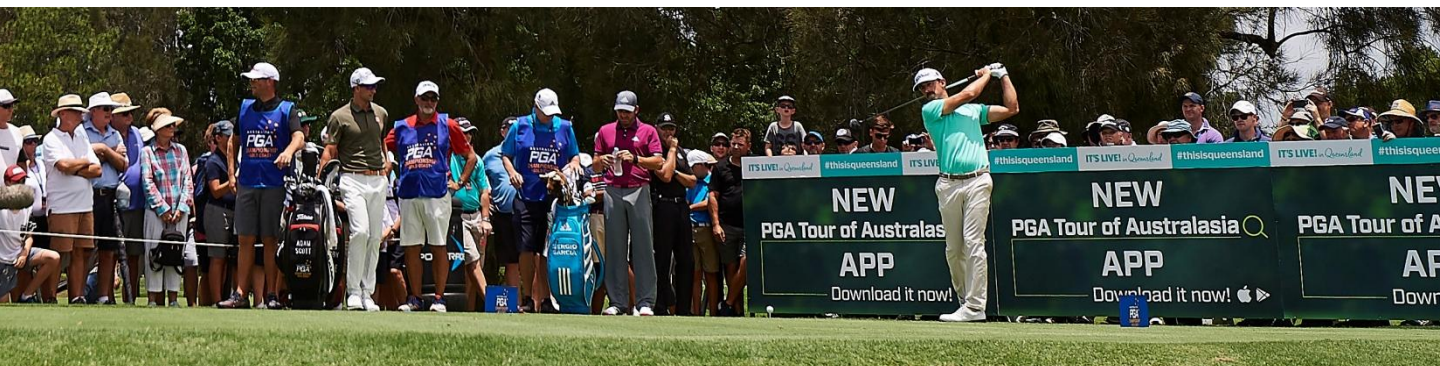

Take some time out at the RACV Cape Schanck Resort and experience the refreshing effect of a place truly shaped by nature. You'll be different after your days at the Cape

The experience

Playing alongside a Tour Professional in a fully sanctioned event on the PGA Tour of Australasia you'll get to experience all the tension and excitement as you battle to make the 36 hole and then the 54 hole cuts. Added to this is the first class experience off the course with all inclusive functions, players lounge access, corporate hospitality and merchandise.

The Victorian PGA Celebrity Amateur Challenge

Tournament Format

The Victorian PGA Celebrity Amateur Challenge will be played as a Modified Four-Ball Best Ball Nett Stroke event.

All amateur players will be paired with a Professional for the entirety of the Tournament with the best Nett Stroke score per pair per hole recorded.

No hole score can be greater than a Nett bogey and amateur players are required to pick up their ball when this can no longer be achieved.

Handicaps

All competitors must have a GA handicap and Golf LINK number which has been valid for no less than 12 months prior to the Tournament.

All amateurs will play from 75% of their Daily Handicap value calculated using the appropriate slope rating at the beginning of the Tournament.

There will be a Daily handicap limit for all amateurs of 25 for Men and 32 for Women. Amateurs with GA handicaps above these limits will be adjusted down to meet this requirement.

All Professionals will play from Scratch.
