2020 HAINAN ISLAND PRO-AM FAQ'S

Where is Hainan Island?

China's tropical island is situated south of mainland China and east of Vietnam.

How do you get there?

We will fly directly from Sydney to Haikou, the capital of Hainan Island with Hainan Airlines. Should you be departing from another capital city, please contact us at CGE to arrange your code share connection with Virgin Airlines (additional costs will apply).

Why Hainan Island?

We looked for a special location with a 5 star resort and world class courses for you to enjoy and compete in the pro-am event. We could not go past Mission Hills Haikou as our destination of choice.

Do we need a Chinese visa?

If you are only visiting Hainan Island, CGE will assist in providing you with a Visa Waiver letter so no Visa will be required. If you plan to visit other parts of China before or after the tournament then a visa will be required before you depart. We will provide all of the necessary details to assist you in obtaining your Visa.

Can non-golfing partners come along?

We can provide options such as shopping, sightseeing and cultural tours for the non-golfer as well as massage and beauty treatment in the world class spa facilities, or they can just relax by the pool, soak in one of the 168 thermal pools at the resort or visit Movie Town.

Do we walk or use carts?

Carts are included in the price though players are welcome to walk between shots. Anyone with a medical condition or over 65 may be given access to access on the fairways and a medical certificate will be required for such a request. Any access for carts on fairways is weather dependant and at the discretion of Mission Hills.

Are caddies provided & what's the recommended tip?

Caddies are provided and its usually one caddy per player. However, Mission Hills reserves the right to limit the caddies to one caddy per two players. We suggest a minimum of RMB150 (approx. $30) per caddy per round however feel free to be as generous as you like.

What weather conditions in April?

April is one of the best times to visit Hainan Island as it is one of the drier months of the year and humidity is relatively low making for comfortable playing conditions. Average day time temperature is 30C while night time is 22C. Always remember to pack an umbrella and rain jacket, just in case. The caddies provide wet weather covers for your golf bag.

I have another question...

For any further questions feel free to contact the team at CGE Golf on 1300CGEGOLF or play@cgegolf.com.au ... we will be more than happy to assist.
